Trailhead Location: In Centerville. Take Parrish Lane exit from I-15 and go east. Continue on Parrish Lane until it terminates at 700 East. Turn left (north) and follow the dirt road up past the water tank until you reach a large graded dirt parking lot. Please obey all signage designating OHV trails and non-motorized trails.

Description: Parrish Creek is the best route for climbing Bountiful Peak from the west. It was named after Samuel Parrish who settled along the creek in 1848. The route basically follows the ridge that is located between Parrish Canyon and Centerville Canyon. It starts by following the ridge overlooking Parrish Canyon and then goes around the ridge that overlooks Centerville Canyon. The foothill that is located above both canyons is known as Centerville Peak. The trail meets the Skyline Drive road below the ridgeline. It then follows the road north to the summit of Bountiful Peak.

Length: 4.8 miles
Time: 3 to 4 hours up and back
Elevation Rise: 1,600 ft.
Use: hike
